Numb. 1418

FRIDAY, APRIL 1. 1743.

Rome, March 16.

ON the 11th of this Month his Holineſs held a Conſiſtory, in which Card. Rezzonico was propoſed for the Biſhoprick of Padua, and the Cardinal Accoramboni for that of Frascati. Count Spada, Miniſter from the Duke of Tuſcany, caus'd, the ſame Day, the Arms of his Royal Highneſs to be ſet up on the Palace of the Electreſs Dowager Palatine, as the Heir of that Princeſs. On the 12th the Chevalier de St. George, and his eldeſt Son, were at the Quirinal, where they had a long Audience of the Pope. The Spaniards continue ſtill in the Bolonois, where the Inhabitants are not only totally ruined, but in danger of ſtarving, even if they had Money, ſince there are no Proviſions left.

Naples, March 12. Her Majeſty is perfectly well, and is now in the 7th Month of her Pregnancy. His Majeſty, as our Gazette ſays, has been pleaſed to order the Marquis de Fogliani, his Miniſter to the States General, to proceed to the Court of London, in order to make ſome Repreſentations to his Britannick Majeſty as to the great Obſtructions given by Admiral Mathews to the Commerce of this Kingdom, notwithſtanding his Majeſty's having obſerved an exact Neutrality. The March of the Troops that were to have join'd the Spaniſh Army is ſuſpended, but it is ſaid, that the Court will immediately diſband 8000 old Troops, on account of the want of Money to pay them, and that theſe will immediately put themſelves into his Catholick Majeſty's Service, Count de Goges having lately received 3 Millions of Pieces of Eight, that he might not want Men and Money too. It is not known how the Court of Great Britain will reliſh this Step. We receive every Hour freſh Accounts of Miſchiefs done by the Earthquake. On the 22d of laſt Month there were 500 dead Bodies dug out of the Ruins of Nardo.

Leghorn, March 15. All the News we have from Corſica is very uncertain. Some Advices aſſure us, that Baron Neuhoff arrived on the 19th of laſt Month at Calvi, with five Engliſh Men of War; that he had landed a great Quantity of Arms and Ammunition in the Neighbourhood of that Place, but did not go aſhore in Perſon. He contented himſelf with taking ſeveral Genoeſe Barks, and gave Orders for bringing on board ſuch of the Chiefs as came to compliment him on his Return. He was very richly dreſs'd, and every Thing about him very magnificent. Some other Letters mention the Corſicans being all in Arms in the Mountains; that the City of Corte had ſurrendered after a ſhort Siege, the Genoeſe, to the Number of 60, having retired into the Caſtle. The Captains Caſſorio and Zannettini ſecured themſelves from being ſhot, by delivering up 150 Fuzees, and a great Quantity of Ammunition. It ſeems there are two Parties on the other Side the Mountains, one in favour of Baron Neuhoff, and the other of Count Ornano, but both equally Enemies to the Genoeſe. The ſame Letters add, that two Engliſh Men of War and a Fireſhip appearing before the Port of Ajaccio, with Deſign to burn the St. Iſidore, a Spaniſh Ship that had lain there all the Winter, the Spaniſh Officer who commanded her, and whoſe Name is ſaid to be Signior Lage, thought fit to ſet her on fire himſelf; but having done this a little too precipitately, he had the ill Luck to blow up 70 Men together with the Veſſel; the Republick of Genoa not daring to let the Governor of Ajaccio defend the Spaniſh Ship, will be obliged to pay for it.

Ferrara, March 20. Veldt-Marſhal Count Traun has demanded from our Legate Proviſions for the Subſiſtence of his whole Army, lately augmented by 4000 Recruits from the Tyrol. It is ſaid his Excellency has Orders to attack the Spaniards without Delay, and by the Diſpoſitions he is making it appears plainly that he intends to ſurround them, if they do not ſpeedily retire.

Vienna, March 20. The Treaty by which the Court of Saxony is to furniſh 15,000 Men for the Service of his Britannick Majeſty, has been concluded, and ſigned by Mr. Villiers, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter at that Court; and Yeſterday his Excellency ſate out to execute ſeveral Commiſſions of Importance at certain German Courts. We ſee here printed, by Order of the Court, a complete and authentic Liſt of the kill'd, wounded, Priſoners, and miſſing in the Army of the Allies, after the late Battle of Campo Santo; according to which it appears there were 425 Men kill'd, 924 wounded, 271 made Priſoners, and miſſing in all 1620; the Loſs in Horſes amounted to 448 kill'd and wounded. This Morning arriv'd an Expreſs from Duke Aremberg, the Diſpatches of which have given great Satisfaction to the Court.

Paris, April 1. His Majeſty is returned from Choiſy to Verſailles; it is ſaid we ſhall ſpeedily hear of ſtill greater Changes in the Miniſtry; there will be four Camps on the Meuſe and on the Moſelle, and the Troops employ'd on that Side will amount at leaſt to 100,000 Men. The Departure of Marſhal Noailles is again put off, ſome ſay for a Month. On the 25th of laſt Month arriv'd a Courier from M. de Fenelon, with Diſpatches which were ſuppos'd to be of great Importance; but upon Examination, it was found that the Anſwer he had obtain'd from the States was not deciſive, and thereupon Orders have been ſent to obtain a more explicit Declaration as to the Part they intend to take in caſe of a Rupture between the Crown of France and the Queen of Hungary and her Allies. Many People think that a Reſolution was taken in the laſt great Council to ſend 20,000 Men to join the Spaniards in Savoy; but others are of Opinion, that the Conſideration of this Queſtion was adjourn'd till it ſhall appear whether the War will become general or not; which, notwithſtanding Appearances, many People believe will not happen. We are told that the K. of Pruſſia will ſhortly aſſemble an Army of 30,000 Men, in order to prevent the Emperor a ſecond time from being driven out of his Dominions; but the Truth of this Piece of News is very much doubted.

Bruſſels, April 1. Orders are given for repairing and furniſhing the Palace of Orange for the Reception of our Governor Prince Charles of Lorrain. A Lady belonging to the Court of the late Archduchеſs who has an Apartment there, had it, thro' the Careleſſneſs of a Servant, ſet on fire two Nights ago; but, by the Help of ſpeedy Aſſiſtance, it was put out before any conſiderable Miſchief was done. Two extraordinary Councils of State have been lately held, in relation to the grand Affair of aboliſhing the Franchiſes. Every Body agrees, that it will be a prodigious Benefit to the Publick; but then theſe Privileges have ſubſiſted ſo long, and are ſo beneficial to People of Quality, that the taking them away muſt meet with a great deal of Oppoſition. The Engliſh Troops that are quarter'd here, have received Orders to march directly towards the Rhine, and it is believed they will begin their March To-morrow. We have certain Advice from Vienna, that the Triple Alliance between the Courts of London, Vienna, and Dreſden, is actually concluded, and that Count d'Altheim communicated the Contents of it to the King of Pruſſia.

We have receiv'd from Durham the following Particulars relating to a horrid Murder committed on the 23d Inſtant, on Mary Forſter, a Widow, by Robert Wilkinſon, formerly a Shop-keeper in that City, who having ſeveral Times fail'd in the World, came at laſt to lodge with the Deceas'd, who had a Houſe and Shop there, and aſſiſted her in her Buſineſs. For ſome time Matters went on very well, but they keeping a Brandy-Shop, and he giving himſelf up to the Extravagancies which Men, debauch'd with ſuch Liquors, are but too frequently guilty of, began to uſe her in a very harſh Manner; which increas'd by his giving Way to his Paſſion, and from Words proceeded to Blows, till it became the Surprize of the whole Neighbourhood that ſhe did not leave him, and ſeek her Bread where ſhe might obtain it with more Peace and Satisfaction than ſhe might be ſenſible ſhe could do with him; but ſuch was her Infatuation, that, notwithſtanding the many Wounds and Bruiſes he had lately given her (particularly on the 22d, when he abus'd and cut her in a moſt barbarous manner) ſhe ſtill continued with him. The next Day, viz. Wedneſday the 23d, being fully reſolv'd to ſatisfy his deviliſh Spirit by diſpatching her, he ſent a young Girl ſhe kept as a Servant abroad, then going to the Deceas'd, and tying a Handkerchief about her Neck and her Mouth, he faſten'd her to the long Settle in the Kitchen, where ſhe remain'd near 3 Hours, till ſhe was ſtrangled, or ſuffocated. The Girl coming in before the Fact was fully completed, was going to call her Miſtreſs to ſerve ſome Cuſtomers in the Shop; but he ſwore he would kill her, if ſhe attempted to go near her till he gave her Orders. After ſhe had been dead about two Hours, and every Thing ſet in Order, as tho' ſhe died ſuddenly, ſome Neighbours were told, who, thro' her former ill Uſage, ſuſpecting the Truth, ſearch'd the more narrowly, and found great Cauſe to believe he had murder'd her; which being noiſ'd about, and People gathering, he ſhut up the Shop and Houſe, and ſtood on his Defence, Sword in Hand, threatning Death to all that offer'd to ſeize him. At length a Gentleman of Reſolution, fearing by Delay he might eſcape, broke in at the Window, and took him. On ſearching the dead Body, a great Cut was found on her Head, which had fractur'd her Scull, ſo that ſome Splinters were taken out. The Skin and Fleſh was alſo ſtrip'd off one of her Arms, and Bliſters grown thereon; and ſeveral other Wounds, and deſperate Bruiſes were obſerv'd on her Body, which were ſcarce heal'd. The Mark of the Handkerchief was likewiſe fair to be ſeen on her Neck, and the Blood ſtagnated in her Face. When he was carried to Jail, a bloody Cap, &c. were taken out of his Pocket; and other Linen was found in the Houſe in a very bloody Condition. On theſe Circumſtances, and the Evidence of the Maid, &c. the Coroner's Inqueſt brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder againſt the ſaid Robert Wilkinſon.

Both Houſes of Parliament are adjourn'd to Tueſday ſe'nnight.

AN Hiſtorical DICTIONARY Of all RELIGIONS from the Creation of the World to this Preſent Time, Compiled from the beſt Authors both Antient and Modern.

By THOMAS BROUGHTON, A. M.
Rector of Stibington, in Huntingtonſhire.

I need not point out the Uſefulneſs and Entertainment of a Work of this Nature, which is deſigned to preſent the Reader with a general View of Religion among all Nations, and in all Ages of the World. Here he may trace it from its native Purity and Simplicity in the Patriarchal Times, to its preſent Corruption in the Romiſh Church. He may view it almoſt totally obſcured by the dark Idolatries of the Heathen World, dimly ſhining thro' the ritual Veil of the Moſaical Law, breaking forth in meridian Luſtre under the Goſpel Diſpenſation, and blended with the abſurd Inventions of the Impoſtor Mahomed. He will have the Pleaſure of traverſing the Globe, and taking a Survey of Religion in its preſent State, as poſſeſſed by every Nation of which we have any Knowledge. In moſt Places, it is true, he will find Superſtition uſurping its Seat, and the Eſſence of true Religion almoſt loſt in Show and Ceremony.

In the carrying on this Work, Recourſe has been had only to the beſt and moſt approv'd Authors, and Care has been taken to omit nothing Material, to inſert nothing Superfluous, and to draw up the Whole with the utmoſt Brevity. For the reſt, to render the Subject as Entertaining as poſſible; the Articles, wherever they will admit of it, are embelliſhed and enlivened with Paſſages of the Claſſical and Polite Authors, ancient and modern, eſpecially the Poets, with the Sentiments of Philoſophers and Divines, and with the Relations and Deſcriptions of Voyagers and Travellers.

See the AUTHOR's Preface.

Printed for C. Davis, over-againſt Gray's Inn Gate in Holbourn; T. Harris, on London-Bridge; J. Fletcher at Oxford, and W. Thurlbourn at Cambridge.

For the EYES,

The ſo-much Fam'd Chymical Liquor,

WHICH at once infallibly cures all Inflammation, Bloodſhot, Soreneſs and Weakneſs of the EYES, Defluxions of ſharp Humours, Dimneſs of Sight, Specks, Films, or beginning Cataracts, and that after all other Means have fail'd, and without cauſing the leaſt Trouble or Uneaſineſs in uſing.

It directly heals and cures all Manner of Soreneſs of the Eyes in Children or grown Perſons, tho' of many Years ſtanding, be it either of the dry, itching and ſmarting Kind, or moiſt, rheumy or watering, and whether proceeding from the Evil, or any other Diſtemper.

It effectually takes away all Specks, Films, or incipient Cataracts to Admiration, as alſo all Flies or Gnats, that ſeem to ſwim before the Sight; it wonderfully ſtrengthens the Optick Nerves, comforts the Eyes, immediately removes all Dazzling and Dimneſs, clearing the Sight, and infallibly preſerving it ſtrong and good to exceeding old Age.

Hundreds who were ſo very dim-ſighted for ſome Years, as ſcarcely able to diſtinguiſh any thing, and imagin'd their Age to be the Occaſion, have been perfectly and almoſt inſtantly cured by it, ſo as to read the ſmalleſt Print without Spectacles; and for Opthalmies, or Sore, Bloodſhot, or Rheumy Eyes, no Medicine upon Earth can come near it; Thouſands of Men, Women, and Children, have been cur'd by it of the very worſt Sort, almoſt upon the Spot, and Blindneſs been prevented in abundance who had tried all other Remedies in vain, inſomuch that it may be almoſt accounted a miraculous Remedy.

No Family ought to be without it, nor ever will, after they have had but one Day's Experience of its admirable Efficacy.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Apointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.

An immediate and never-failing Cure for Deafneſs, Thickneſs of Hearing, Noiſe or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the moſt excellent Medicine for this Purpoſe that ever was known, far exceeding all things ever yet publiſhed, or made Uſe of, its Virtues are beyond Expreſſion, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come ſhort of its juſt Praiſe.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an inſtant Cure for Deafneſs, Thickneſs of Hearing, Noiſe or Pain in the Ears, from what Cauſe ſoever, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, having cured vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have been in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines external and internal, by Advice, and alſo by Publication, have failed, with the greateſt Eaſe and Safety, and to their utmoſt Satisfaction and Wonder; for,

In a peculiar Manner it ſtrengthens, ſoftens, and looſens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dried, or ſhrivel'd, is often the firſt, and chief Cauſe of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noiſe, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick, that never fails perfectly to cure all poſſibly curable Caſes, after all other Means and Medicine have utterly failed; which is more than can be ſaid of any other Thing in the whole World beſides itſelf: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congealed Matter in the Ears, it inſtantly cures.

It is ſold for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, at Mr. Richards's Tinſhop, the Sign of the Black Horſe and Star, in Fleet-ſtreet, near Fleet-Market, and no where elſe in England.
